The Montreal

learned that it was the in-make some changes in the tariff on account of the Annexation of Hochelaga to the City, beg leave submit the following scale of rates for your consideration - The rates by the hour we consider to be "just" for both Parties as at present arranged, in so far as driving inside the City Limits, but this Society would respectfully request your Committee to have the clause with reference to driving outside the City at Hour rates, removed from the Tariff as this clause in the Tariff is the cause of endless disputes and also as it is an injustice to the Hackmen to be compelled to drive Parties outside the Limits of the City by the Hour

We would also request that your Committee would alter the tariff with regard to the twenty minutes drive for twenty five cents, we would feel thankful if your Committee would make the time fifteen instead of twenty minutes

~~With regard to Hochelaga~~

We consider that Parties leaving anyplace West of Bleury should pay to go to Hochelaga 75 cts for one or two persons and $1.00 for three or four East of Bleury to Hochelaga 50 cts for one or two persons. 75 cts for three or four, The Members of our Association will feel very thankful if your Honorable Committee will give this matter your consideration at your earliest convenience

A.- Since about the latter part of April 1885.

Q.- How did you come to know her?

A. On being called out one night to a house of ill-fame ~~at No.~~ Sanguinet street, kept by a girl Ellen Belair.- When I went in the house I spoke to Miss Belair and in speaking to her the girl, came down stairs she appeared to me to be a novice to the life she was leading.- I questioned her and she seemed to be very reticent.- I believe I was then doing sergeants' duty.- She said she was only there a few days.- I told her that she was with a girl of very bad repute, that her mistress had served several terms in jail.- I asked her how she came to be there. She said that she had been out walking and fell in company with the mistress Ellen Belair; she had been, at the time, in service with Mr. Senecal, in St Constant street.- Miss Belair told her that she would have a far more enjoyable life.- I told her then that if she remained in such company and in such a house in a year or two she would find herself an outcast in the streets.- Then she promised me she would leave the place and go into service.- She left the house of Ellen Belair and the next time I saw her was down in Wolfe street she sent for me saying that she wanted to see me in Wolfe street. — She requested me by messenger to go and see her. — I went to the house and saw her and I told her that if she wanted any favors that she could have to leave such a house " by favors, I mean both by words and action " I was at the time speaking to her in french. — On the same day I believe she left the house and went into service as table maid into Victor's, she left that place, to the best of my belief, about six weeks after, then she entered the service of the Revd Mr. Hanford. She remained there until this spring, about six months. — When she left that place I do not know where she went afterwards; but, she told me she went to her aunt. — From that time she entered service in several places

Archives de la Ville de Montréal

One of the last places she was in, I believe it was on Bourassa, on St Gabriel street. I met her on the street about 10 O'clock one night, she told me that she had left Bourassa and that she did not know where she was to go, she said that the friends she had in Montreal were two uncles and that they had large families and were very poor, I then told her that I would recommend her to a man that would give her board for a week, I took her to a man, the name of Williams who is a private night watchman; he said that the only accommodation he had was one room with his wife, — I went into the house with the girl and I told the wife that she was out of service and had no money and that as she was in destitute circumstances I would go security for her for a few days. — She remained there a few days and then entered service, ~~she~~ I believe she entered service in several places and returned back to Williams but I told Williams that I promised to be responsible for her board only until she secured a situation and after that I told him that if he took her back it would be on his own account.

She sent up to the station for me several times, I told the messenger that I could not go nor I would not go to see her, - she then came herself and I told her that I would not go; so she told me that there was no use in refusing because she would follow me no matter where I went and she did follow me night and day, and that if she saw me with any other woman she would tear her into pieces

Q.- How was it that you were at her house the day she poisoned herself in St Louis street?

A. It was on learning that she had went around in this manner looking for me

Q.- Who informed you of that fact.

A.- Edward Plante, private watchman, informed me
Q.- Who did you meet there ?
A.- I met her she opened the door when I knocked.
Q.- Who was there besides ?
A.- Mr & Mrs. Williams
Q.- Were there any other men but you
A. Only Plante & Jobin who came down with me ;- I brought these two men Jobin & Plante there with me to be witness of what would occur, I told them that if she continued running after me I would be obliged to appeal to a Magisgrate.
Q.- What did occur then ?
A. She told me that she wanted to speak to me in company with Mrs. Williams we went into a room and there she did not know what to say, it was on her trying to induce me to remain with her ; I said I could not, because her company did not suit me and I did not wish to be seen in company with a woman of her reputation, she then took my hat and ran up-stairs to her room with it, she called for me to go for my hat, I said I would not and I sent Plante up-stairs for to get my hat, he went up and brought my hat down, — on the way down with my hat he told me that he was afraid she might poison herself, he said that she had a cup full of something on her table and that he spilt it and he advised me to go up lest it might be poison, I went up, I saw her cup on the wash stand with nothing in it, so I then came away, but before coming away I told Mr Williams for to keep an eye on the girl lest she might do some harm to herself she said she would. — I do not remember whether I was told or whether I called on my own accord afterwards, but

Mrs. Williams told me that she was in the Hospital, I went up to the Hospital and asked Doctors Brennan & Normandin to enquire how she was, they said that as yet they could not make any definite statement;. they took me up to the ward and I saw her lying in the bed and I spoke to her. I asked her how she did such a foolish act, the only thing she said was "tu sais bien Mac." I promised to return the following day, I went back about 9.30 o'clock p.m. I met doctor Brennan and he told me that she was much better, I asked him if there was any danger for her and he said — No. — He said I might go up to the Ward and see her, I did so, I remained about ten minutes with her and saw her no more until about twelve hours after her death.

Q.— The first time you saw her did you know what kind

Archives de la Ville de Montréal

Q.- Did you pay her board when she was living on St Louis street ?

A. Mrs. Williams told me that the girl was not in service and she requested me to pay her board and I answered that I would be responsible for one week only; but I paid two weeks of her board.

Q.- When she was living with Williams in St Louis street did you go there often ?

A. I used to go when she would send up for me. - I went down there so that she would not come after me.

Q.- Did you often meet Plante & Jobin there ?

A.- Never.

Q.- Does Williams keep a house of good reputation

I believed that his house was of a good reputation.
I told the girl that she had left one house and she was now in another, this was the reason why I would not go there except she would send for me.

she had been seduced about 3 or 4 years before, and she gave me to understand that a man had been keeping her since.

I never went into any house to see her, except at the Revd Mr. Hansford when I stayed for about ten minutes

F. Jacadis Esq.,
Chief of Police,

Sir:

In compliance with your order that I should present to you a report of the incident which has just transpired with regard to the suicide of Anna Auberjon alias Bilodeau, I beg to present the following:

About the 29th February, 1885 - I believe I was doing duty in place of Supt. Devlin & had occasion to call into a house at No. 4 Sanguinet st, which was known as a house of ill-fame, I noticed the deceased Anna Auberjon, who appeared to me a novice in the life she was living, I immediately tried, as I do on all such occasions, to dissuade her in her downward course, & partly succeeded, when her alluring companions succeeded in persuading her to another house on Wolfe st, after a few days, however, she let me know where she had gone & sent me word that she was in trouble, asking me to go & see her, I did, then, I told her that she must leave the house & go into service, which she did on the same day, & entered in Victor's Restaurant as Tablemaid, there she remained for several months & after leaving that she entered the service of the Rev. Mr. Hamilton 75½ Palace st. where she remained [illegible] when she left her situation, for what cause I dont know. Since that she has been in several positions, but did not stop very long in any of them.

A short time ago she came to me one night & told me that her master had made indecent proposals to her, whereupon she dressed herself & walked out. I told her that if she had no place to go to for to come with me & I would see that she did not sleep out. I took her to old Williams the watch man on Notre Dame st & asked him if he would take care of the girl, relating to him the facts of her case, he said he would & took her home, I called several times to see her, but noticing that she appeared to be infatuated & wanted me to be almost always with her, I told her that there was very little use in her trying to capture me as I could not, on account of her previous record, marry her she said she never expected it, but that she would follow me till death, which the result of the Coroner's inquest goes to show.

Since the night I first saw her she has always ran after me, & I have always repelled her company, saying that the public position I occupy debarred me from indulging in such amusements as I might do if I was in a more private position.

On Friday the 11th inst. she sought me all day & enquired off everyone that she thought knew me, if they had seen me, finaly, about 9½ pm. I was told that she had been taken to the Notre Dame Hospital suffering from a dose of poison, I immediately went to the Hospital & saw Dr. Brennan & Dr. Normandin who told me that the case was rather serious, but that there was no danger of her. I remained with the girl until about half past twelve as it seemed to please her, & I again returned about nine next morning, when Dr. Brennan told me, immediately on entering that she was much better & that she had passed all danger. I remained there for about twenty minutes & saw the girl no more until I was informed of her death on Sunday evening.

The above, sir are the facts of the case, so far as I am acquainted with them.

I beg to remain, sir,

Your obedient servant

W. H. Maguire

On this second day of July 1886, Louis Lapointe, Detective 39 years of age, being sworn upon the Holy Evangelists deposeth and saith as follows:

Q.- Do you know Acting-Sergeant Maguire?
A. Yes.
Q.- Have you known Anna Kivenger alias Bilodeau?
A. I do not recollect exactly on what date, I believe it was on the date that Maguire was appointed Acting Sergeant. A woman by the name of Angele Lefebvre came here and reported that a woman was in her house and she wanted to shoot herself and that she had a revolver and a box of cartridges.- Angèle Lefebvre said that she had left the house and she thought that she was in a house corner of Craig and St Dominique streets kept by Mrs. Jackson. so I reported the case to the Chief and the Chief sent me there and I went with constable Rourke. — Anna Bilodeau was there and I told her I just came up to arrest you and she wanted to know why, — I told her that it was because we had had a report that she wanted to shoot herself; — she laughed and said I would not do it, I told her it was not my fault, that I had an order to bring her to the station and that she would have to come. — She said I will not go until I see Maguire, I said I do not want Maguire to make the arrest, you must come, and at the same time Maguire came in with sub constables Dubue & McWilliams as she was determined not to come with me I told Maguire to take charge of her.

I told the Chief that she had no revolver, I told the Chief that she was crying and that she promised to be here next morning. —

On this eighth day of July 1886 William Williams, private watchman, 53 years of age, being sworn upon the Holy Evangelists deposeth and said as follows:

Q.- Will you please tell what you know about that case of Anna Duverger alias Bélodeau?
A. The case as I know. — The Acting-Sergeant brought the girl down to my place about three weeks before she poisoned herself; he asked me if I would board the girl and hold her for shelter until she got a place of service and I said you are a sergeant and said certainly I will oblige you, but I said I had no room, she can sleep with my wife as I shall be away all night and he said he would pay for her board if she did not; to my best belief, she was there about nine days and she went away to a place of service, she was away a week and she said she had no other place to go and asked me to have shelter again, I said I will go and see Maguire. — Maguire said I have nothing more to do with her, she came up on my beat and asked me to go and fetch Sergeant Maguire and I went to Sergeant Maguire and he said go and tell her I do not want anything more to do with her and if you give her any more board I will not answer for it. — She said I will go to the station and see Maguire myself, she came home and on account of Sergeant Maguire I let her sleep on the sofa in my boy's (wife's) bed room

Q. — That was the second time she came back?

A. Yes

Q. — The first time she went there you did give her a room?

Archives de la Ville de Montréal

A.— I had no room to give her, she slept in my wife's bed room.

Maguire never slept in my wife's bed, I never saw anything wrong done in my house.— The night before she took the poison she said to me that if Maguire does not come here it will be the worse for him, because she said I will go into service and I will buy a revolver and shoot him, these are the last words she said to me

Q.— How long did you know this girl?

A. I never saw her before Maguire brought her to my house, I then lived at No. 62 Bonsecours street

Q.— Who brought her to your house?

A.— Maguire, she stayed about 8 or 9 days in my house,— I knew her but two months, from the time Maguire brought her to my house on Bonsecours street.

Archives de la Ville de Montréal

Then I moved on the 2nd May to St Louis street, she was then in service and came back afterwards, she was there at the time she pursued herself. — Maguire did not stay at my house on St Louis street as far as I know. — I frequently saw Maguire and she frequently sent for him, she also sent messages for Maguire, but if there was anything wrong done it was without my knowledge. — On St Louis street that girl slept on the sofa down stairs I had no room to spare

Q. When she pursued herself was it in your wife's room or her room?

A. It was in one of the girls room, when they were at work

Q. — Did Plante used to go and see that girl at your house?

A. — I never saw him there.

Q. — Do you know Jobin?

A. — To the best of my knowledge I do not know him. I was in my house when that girl poisoned herself, I was in bed at the time, I do not remember that any man except Maguire came to my house when she poisoned herself, I was told that Olante was with him but I never saw him. — I do not know anything about the character of the girl. I know Maguire for the past four years, I never saw him the worse of liquor. — Maguire used to go frequently at my house even before I was married; he is a friend of mine. he used to court my daughter before she got married. — My house in St Louis street contains 3 rooms up stairs and 3 rooms down stairs. — I am sub-letting to other persons to the extent of two in number. — She was very frequently with the other boarders. I do not know that Maguire kept com-

Jenny with the other boarders.
I know that Maguire was a friend of mine and my wife. — I thought she was going to drown herself because one night, when she sent me for Maguire and that he refused to come.
The first time that Maguire brought that girl into my house he did not say anything to me except he asked me to give protection to her until she got a place of service
She said, I think, that she was from Nova Scotia,
and that she had an aunt.
A man came for her box as soon as the inquest was over at the hospital, I refused to give the box until I got orders from Maguire. That girl never said a word to me about any body, except that she was fond of Maguire.

On this eighth day of July 1886, Louis Naegle, détective, 24 years of age being sworn upon the Holy Evangelists deposeth and saith as follows:

About 4 or 5 years ago I met Anna Deverger at No. 4 Sanguinet street kept by a woman named Dutchy, there was a detective or a policeman there, I cannot say positively. - I was searching the house for stolen goods and I did not find any-thing. - That girl Anna was living there at the time.
Q. - Will you say what kind of a house it was?
A. It was a house of ill-fame. - I had many occasions to meet that girl Anna on the streets drunk about 1, 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning with some other men, and once I met four of them in a cab, 2 men and 2 women. -

About 8 or 9 months

Archives de la Ville de Montréal

ago, Maguire the Acting Sergeant asked me if I could not arrest that woman because she was bothering him all the time, he said you are patrolling all night and you have good chances to arrest her. — I met her several times between 12 and 1 in the morning but could not arrest her on account of having no charge; a few months afterwards Maguire was on special duty at the Royal Theatre on Cote street, he told me, will you do me a favor and try not to leave that girl talk to me here, because I am before the public and it is not my place to talk to her here.

I went to that woman and told her that if she interfered with any of the constables that she would be arrested, she asked me who I was and I told her, she took her cloak and went out.

Afterwards Maguire told

Archives de la Ville de Montréal

me the same thing that that girl would get him into trouble, he said she wants me to marry her and I do not want to marry a prostitute, because I know it will be reported to my superior officers and I will be dismissed). - When I saw that I could do nothing I refered the matter to the Deputy Chief of Police, the Chief told me that I would have to wait until I could have a charge against her to send her away, and I know for a fact that since 8 or 9 months Maguire has done all what he could do to get rid of her.

Au Comité de Police

Le Sous. Comité nommé en vertu d'une résolution de votre Comité passée le 30 Juin dernier pour s'enquerir de certaines accusations portées contre le Sous. sergent Maguire, a l'honneur de rapporter:

Qu'il a tenu plusieurs séances au cours desquelles il a entendu un bon nombre de témoins dont les dépositions assermentées sont ci-annexées.

Il appert de cette preuve orale que, depuis plusieurs mois déjà, le Sous. sergent Maguire entretenait des relations avec Anna Duberger, ~~femme dont la réputation était mauvaise~~ longtemps même avant d'avoir fait connaissance avec Maguire.

Dans l'opinion de votre Sous-Comité, il est répréhensible chez tout officier de la Police, d'avoir des relations de cette nature, parce qu'elles sont contraires à la Morale publique et au bon gouvernement de la Police et parceque elles nuisent à la bonne tenue et à la réputation du corps auquel il appartient. Et en conséquence sont une cause suffisante de renvoi;

Cependant, en considération des circonstances atténuantes qui entourent le cas actuel, votre Sous-Comité est disposé à recommander que pour cette fois, le Sous. sergent Maguire soit condamné à ne recevoir durant deux mois, que la solde de sous-constable au lieu de celle de sous-sergeant qu'il reçut aujourd'hui — et qu'à l'avenir tout officier qui s'oublierait au point de commettre une aussi grave offense, soit immédiatement renvoyé du service.

To the Police Committee

The sub Police Committee appointed under and by virtue of a resolution of your Committee passed on the 30th June last, to investigate the charges made against Sergeant Maguire,

Respectfully report:

That they have held several meetings and heard under oath several witnesses, whose testimony is hereunto annexed.

This testimony goes to show that, for several months passed, acting-Sergeant Maguire had relations with Anna Duberger, a woman of ill-repute even long before she became ~~associated with Maguire~~.

That in the opinion of your Sub Committee such relations for an Officer of the Police Force are highly reprehensible, contrary to public moral and detrimental to the good working and Government of the Police Force.

Whilst your Sub. Committee believe that such relations, as also the frequenting of houses of ill-fame by members of the Police Force, are sufficient cause for dismissal, yet, considering the mitigated circumstances of the facts, your Sub. Committee would recommend that in the present case, acting Sergeant Maguire be condemned to a reduction of his pay to that of a constable for the space of two months, and that in future it be a rule for the Committee, whenever an officer forgets himself so far as to commit such a dereliction of duty, that he be dismissed at once from the force.

The whole nevertheless respectfully submitted.

It is expected that each visiting detachment should consist of not less than forty-five men, all told, namely: two commissioned officers, two sergeants, two Guides and forty patrolmen;

The Police Committee

Respectfully Report.

That for some time past, they were engaged in the important duty of reorganizing the whole Police Force with a view to procure more efficient men for active duty;

That to attain the object in view, your Committee resolved that every member of the Police Force should be obliged to undergo a medical examination by one of the Physicians engaged by the Committee;

That the result of the examination showed that all the members of the force were competent to fulfil their duties, with the exception of eight men who were reported as unfit owing to old age or bodily infirmities;

With reference to the latter, your Committee resolved that immediate notice to each of them be given to leave the service within one month, and that six month's pay be handed to each of them on

on leaving the said service;

In order that your Committee may be enabled to meet said expenditure, they recommend that they be authorized to vary from their appropriation a sum of $1877.20 as follows:

from men's pay $377.20
" " clothing 1500.00 1877.20

and to apply the same to the six months' pay of the men who have been thus reported unfit for active duty; and they recommend accordingly.

That the present Police regulations provide for two sub-chiefs, and the city is divided into two districts, the care of which is divided between the two subchiefs.

That your Committee believe it is expedient and in the interest of the Community that the city be divided into three districts and that three instead of two subchiefs be appointed, who will take charge ~~of~~ of these districts respectively.

That there is at present but one sub-chief Mr Lancey, the vacancy occasioned by the death of Major in 1886 having been left open to this day.

That the appropriations asked for by Your Committee at the beginning of the year was $175,600

Your Committee believe the sum of $1450. can be saved on the following items of their appropriations, that is to say:

On the pay list	$ 500.
on provisions	50.
on stabling	200.
on clothing	700.
	$ 1450.

A Messieurs les Echevins

L'humble Requête des soussignés expose respectueusement Que ils sont Barbiers et Perruquiers et que il serait de leurs intérêts et de celui de leurs employés, afin de leur permettre de voquer plus librement le Dimanche à leurs devoir religieux, qu'ils soit interdit, par un reglement de la Cité aux dits Barbiers et Perruquiers d'ouvrir leurs boutiques le Dimanche pour l'avenir;

Que les Requerants ferment d'habitude leurs boutiques déjà tres tard le Samedi soir, et il ne serait que juste qu'ils puissent, eux et leurs employés, prendre un repos complet le Jour du Dimanche.

Que la faculté présentement accordée, aux dits Barbiers d'ouvrir leurs boutiques le Dimanche jusqu'a dix heures A.M. donne lieu a beaucoup d'abus;

Que generalement la plupart des Barbiers retiennent en ouvrage — en desobeissance à la loi divine et humaine — leurs employés bien au delà de 10 heures A.M. les mettant ainsi dans une certaine impossibilité d'assister au service divin - divin matin;

Que la fermeture complète le Dimanche des boutiques de Barbiers ne saurait nuire en aucune manière à aucun des citoyens de Montréal, et qu'elle serait des plus utile et avantageuse à vos requérants.

C'est pourquoi les soussignés réitèrent respectueusement leur demande aux fins qu'il soit défendu à l'avenir, par un réglement de la Cité, aux dits Barbiers d'ouvrir le Dimanche; laquelle demande ces derniers appuient de leur signature ainsi que de celle des principaux citoyens

That the attention of your Committee having been drawn to the fact that the salaries of the officers are scarcely in excess of that of an ordinary constable, your Committee respectfully recommend that officers salaries be increased as follows viz: Sergeants to $800. a year, acting Sergeants to $700. a year, Chief Detective to $1,000. a year, and the other Detectives to $900.00/100 a year.

Son Honneur le Maire

L'humble requête du soussigné expose respectueuse-ment;

Que le vingt huit Septembre dernier deux mineurs au dessous de seize ans, savoir les nommés Albert Hénault et Arthur Daigneault, de cette ville ont été arrêtés en état d'ivresse et condamnés à la Réforme;

Que sur la déclaration que ces mineurs ont faite d'avoir acheté cette bois-son qui était du whiskey chez Lecaillé & frère, marchands épiciers de la dite Cité de Montréal, l'un des dits associés savoir Charles Lecaillé le Réquérant, a été pour-suivi au nom de la dite Cité de Montréal pour vente de boisson à des mineurs au dessous de seize ans;

Que le dernier jour du mois d'
Octobre courant, pour répondre à la dite accusation, le dit Réquérant a comparu en la Cour des Recorder de la Cité de Montréal, devant N. H. Bourgouin Ecuier Avocat, siégeant comme Juge ce jour là, en la dite Cour, en l'absence de
B. A. T. de Montigny, Recorder de la dite Cité;

Que là et alors en présence du dit
N. H. Bourgouin les dits mineurs ont ont de nouveau déclaré sous serment qu'ils avaient acheté chez les dits "Léveillé frère" la dite boisson avec laquelle ils s'étaient enivrés;

Que de leur côté les dits Défendeurs ont affirmé aussi sous serment qu'ils n'avaient point vu à leur magasin les dits mineurs et qu'ils n'avaient point vendu de boisson ce jour là, de deux à cinq heures temps pendant lequel les dits mineurs disent l'avoir achetée et s'être enivrés;

Que les dits Défendeurs ont produit à l'appui de leur témoignage, celui de deux autres témoins qui sont été avec eux au dit magasin pendant tout ce temps, qui ont affirmé de même n'avoir point vu ces mineurs au dit magasin ni y avoir vu vendre la dite boisson;

Que le dit H. H. Bourgouin après l'audition de ces témoignages a néanmoins condamné le dit Chs. Léveillé à une amende de soixante quinze piastres ($75.00);

Que le dit H. H. Bourgouin s'est basé pour rendre ce jugement sur l'affirmation de ces deux mineurs dont le caractère et la conduite donnent raison de soupçonner la véracité;

Qu'en effet le père et la mère du dit Albert Hénault, ont même porté témoignage contre leur enfant en la dite cause, en disant qu'il était menteur, voleur et d'une conduite très mauvaise ce qui l'a conduit à la Réforme où il est maintenant;

Que l'on peut alléguer encore, contre la vérité du témoignage de ces mineurs entre autres faits, ceux de n'avoir pu reconnaître parmi les accusés et leurs témoins, celui qui leur avait vendu cette boisson et celui d'avoir déjà pris beaucoup de boisson avant d'aller en acheter d'autre chez le dit Réquérant, ainsi qu'ils l'ont affirmé eux-mêmes dans leur témoignage, de sorte qu'ils devaient déjà être dans une ivresse assez avancée pour se tromper sur l'identité des lieux.

C'est pourquoi le dit Réquérant se croit fondé à invoquer la justice de ce jugement et justifiable de vous prier de vouloir bien lui faire remise de l'amende qu'il a été condamné à payer par suite d'une affirmation qu'on a tout lieu de croire fausse.

Et Votre Réquérant ne cessera de prier.

That at their meeting held this day, they have reconsidered the question of the appointment of a secretary to the police department;

That since the death of Mr C. P.
