My dear Sir Louis,

I

received your notes in Rausseau's debt case. I have not yet seen the record but I may say they quite agree with the view of the Case I took at the argument.
My object however in writing just now is to say that I have made rather full notes of the several evidences in Peel's Case; and that if the placing of these notes before you, would be likely to decrease your labours in the examination of that case, in which above 40 witnesses were examined, it would greatly afford me pleasure.

SOCIÉTÉ HISTORIQUE
DE MONTRÉAL

to have my notes of the evidences copied for that purpose.

We have had enquiries whether you had some copies;
and our friend Judge Morris I am glad to say seems to prefer by no means Mr. Lewis's names

Yours most faithfully
W. F. Meredith.
