My dear Sir

000054

I only arrived yesterday from Birmingham & find your Letter waiting for me I much regret your having suffered from indisposition & earnestly hope you may be speedily restored to your usual health—

I have called at Parkes's Office to day— there are no Letters there for you, nor have any arrived since the last I sent to you—

My Son William Scholefield left London last night & will be found at the Hotel des Etrangers, Rue Vivienne, in Paris where he will be glad to see, if you will call upon him— Remain

My dear Sir

Yrs faithfully

Wm Scholefield
