Sir

I had the Honour of writing to you on the 10th instant and enclosing by General Braddocks directions my dispatches for him and Commodore Kepple under your Cover to be forwarded by the first Conveyance. — I now transmit Duplicates of those Letters, with another I have since wrote the General all which I must take the liberty of troubling you with and begging the favour you will send them to the General by the first safe Opportunity that offers. I am

With great respect & Esteem

Sir

Your most obedient and most humble Servant
