Dear Sir

By a Letter I had from Mr. Fleisher some time ago on the subject of plans, I wrote you about, I was informed of your having been so good as clear up the little difficulties he made about sending them, and that you had paid him the money he wanted, I am very much obliged to you for it, for although the sum is not great, however I was greatly puzzled how to get it paid him, I'll thank you if you would write me a few lines, to know where you should wish to have the money reimbursed to you, and if you have at the same time anything that you wish to do in this Country I beg you will let me know, if it is in my power to be of any use, for there is nothing I like so much, as serving those that have been kind to me.

I hope Mr. Eden, and Lady Elizabeth have been well since we left Dresden. M^{rs}. Livingston desires to know how she has kept her health this winter, and joins me in offering our best respects to them both, how does Frederic and my young friend do.

There is nothing spoke of but an immediate dissolution of Parliament, but there is a call of the house expected before that takes place.

Edinburgh is very full of Company and very gay, this winter, which makes me still more happy that I am come home.

In the hopes of ~~seeing~~ hearing from you soon, I remain Sir your most Obedt^o

Servant Dalhousie
