Dear Sir,

Pa. 2. 4. 1. 1. 1.

By referring to my memorandum, I find the original letter which I wrote to Mr. Burkwood was sent by the mail under cover to Mr. Murray, my letter accompanying it, was dated the 26th Dec^r.
There was also a letter directed to J. A. Oldham &
If you are writing to Mr. Murray, perhaps you would be kind enough to ask him if he recd any letters from me of the above date,
and by what ship he forwarded them.

Excuse my troubling you.

Very faithfully

W. Hoar

The Baron George Nicholas having requested me to give my opinion of his character, I have great pleasure in stating that I knew him to be a loyal subject, a reputable inhabitant of Toronto, and I very much regret that in consequence of his zeal in coming forward during the attack upon Toronto, he has received an injury which the trifling in appearance has been productive therein of great misfortune.
