Kingston 14 Sept 1841.

My dear Sir

I was glad to find that you had met with such little opposition & rather more success in your Northern tour — We hear that Mr Thorne is to be your opponent — I think this is all well — I do not fear his dening the Reformers rights — As to the vote on the amendments I understand the "Herald" of today will contain Mr Price's speech which tho it does not so well as I recollect contain all the grounds on which I acted will give the general views ~~of~~ upon which we acted — I should regret much its being brought to bear upon the Elections because there will not perhaps be time to ~~and~~ contract it - I hope to be able to be at the Elections - Mr Price will go up this evening - In order to prevent the difficulty you refer to we propose introducing into Mr Harris's Registration Bill a clause excluding my act from operation in the North West Division - In consultation with Price & Small & Mr Birch it was thought better to do so in consequence of the uncertainty of the close of the Session being in time for the Act to pass through his argument a indiv island of the Bill having become an and Law

- Whether we shall succeed or not I cannot say so that we shall have to take our chances - I do not write to my father but Mr Price will give all the news I could
