The numerous friends of Mr. Edward Zuyderhoff, late an attaché of the Dutch Legation at New York, will be pained to hear of the misfortune which has brought his diplomatic career to a close at Nice.

The Viceroy of India has issued an order relating to the connection of officers of the civil service with the press, which will make many of these gentlemen very uncomfortable. No officer in the service of the Government can be permitted, without the previous sanction in writing of the Government, to be the proprietor in whole or in part of any newspaper or periodical, or to edit or manage any such publication.

There is novelty as well as beauty and variety in the trimmings this season, and ladies who wished to see the newest and prettiest flocked to the fall opening at Mr. E. A. Morrison's yesterday, between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets, in order to become acquainted with the latest modes.

The meeting held at the Cannon Street Hotel on Thursday to get up sympathy for the suffering Christians of the Herzegovina and Bosnia was a sad fizzle. Even Lord John Russell did not come, he sent a letter to say that his health would not permit him to attend a meeting in a crowded room.

Flowers for the exterior and lace of all kinds are reserved for velvet for bonnets intended for dressy wear. These are really works of art. The favorite combinations are dark nut brown and cream, navy blue and pale straw color, invisible green and unbleached white.

The Cincinnati Commercial admits that the election of Allen will commit the Democracy to inflation or break the party in pieces. But it says the Allen party will be defeated. Reports from all parts of the State show a decided falling away from the Democratic ticket on the part of sterling, old-time Democrats.

NOT IN THAT LIGHT. (From the "Troy Times.") THE DAILY GRAPHIC, a Hidden Democratic organ, says "the one confusing element in the campaign is Billallemism." There are a great many other Democrats, however, who think the greatest "confusing element" is Sammymism.

Scriner, Armstrong & Co. will bring out a number of interesting works this fall. Of course Dr. Holland's new novel, "Seven Oaks," will lead the list. It has elements of interest, and bids fair to be his best story. A new volume of ancient history, "From the Monuments," relating to Persia, by S. W. Vaux, will be of special interest to students.

The Catholic World for October opens with a careful and comprehensive review of Tennyson's new drama, "Queen Mary," being the second review which this periodical has devoted to said drama. The critic, while not unmindful of the merits of the poem, yet on the whole decides that it is a failure.

A beautiful novelty consists of the trimmings in mother of pearl on velvet, with buttons to match, and also ornamented with mother of pearl. Forbonnets and dresses, including the new belts, which form a chateleine of fringes, the newest are composed of tassels with an open gimpe or netted background, and the most useful the pretty ruffled fringes of narrow crimped silk tape with a heading.

The children's department is a specialty, and shows, as usual, a great variety of stylish little garments, very beautifully made, at moderate prices. There are also untrimmed felt hats of the best quality at a uniform price—$1.50—and a department of trimmed hats and bonnets, which is characterized by the same refined and excellent taste which gives the tone to the establishment.

A. T. Stewart & Co. have had no "opening" of millinery this year, considering the custom better honored in the breach than the observance, but they are to have a most beautiful display of hats and bonnets. A style peculiar to the house has a straight, rather deep velvet brim, faced with flowers, feathers, or foliage.

Flowers for the exterior and lace of all kinds are reserved for velvet for bonnets intended for dressy wear. These are really works of art. The favorite combinations are dark nut brown and cream, navy blue and pale straw color, invisible green and unbleached white. Scarlet geranium is much used to give a rich natural tinge, the holy wash in terms, and clusters of the mountain ash with the gold and brown of autumn leaves.

Reports from all parts of the State show a decided falling away from the Democratic ticket on the part of sterling, old-time Democrats.

THE PHILADELPHIA EXHIBITION.

NO. V.—CANADA.

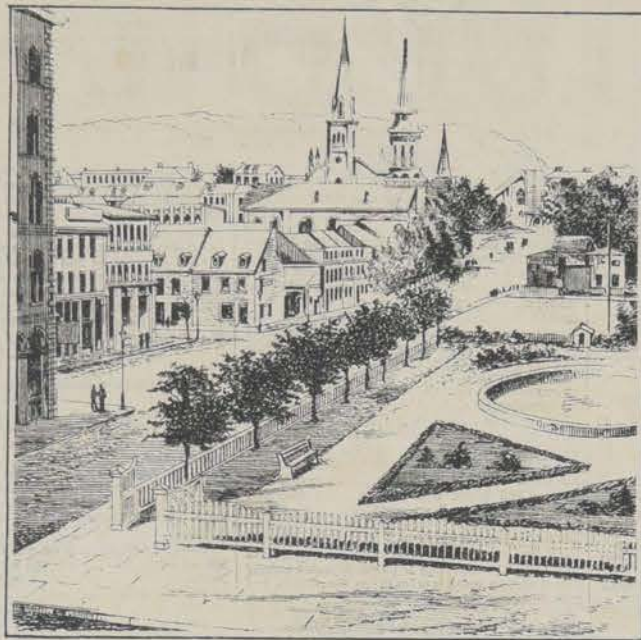

The evidence already received is sufficient to indicate that our northern neighbor intends to make a most complete exhibit, not only of her native resources but also of her manufactures. The men selected for the control and management of the Canadian exhibit have already taken time by the forelock, and every section of the Dominion has been visited by the Commissioner for the purpose of stimulating the different provinces. The interest shown and appropriations made should serve as an incentive to some of our own States, which appear almost ignorant that an exhibition is to be held.

The superficial area of the Canadian Dominion is larger than that of the United States, and nearly equal to that of the whole of Europe. It comprises the following provinces and territories: Ontario, 121,500 square miles; Quebec, 210,020 square miles; Nova Scotia, 37,187 square miles; British Columbia, 338,000 square miles; Manitoba, 16,000 square miles; Hudson Bay and Northwest territories, 3,300,750 square miles; and in addition there are the islands of Labrador and others in the Arctic Ocean, all of which being added make the total of 3,200,000 square miles. The population, according to the census of 1871, was 3,966,510, exclusive of Indians.

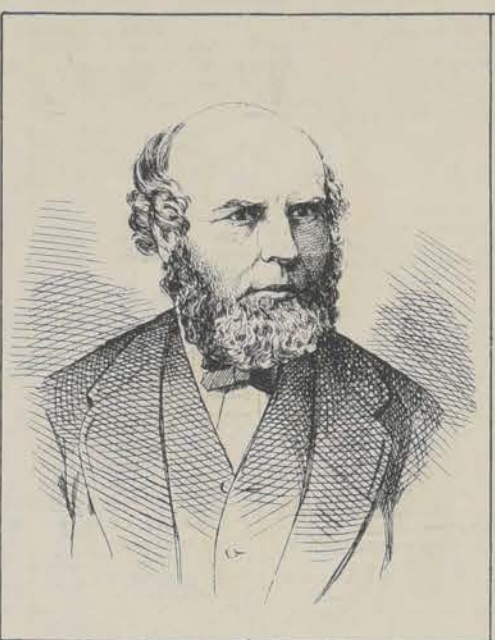

The most striking physical features of Canada are the Rocky Mountains, the Laurentian range, with its continuation northward to the Arctic Ocean, and the immense bodies of fresh water which have so great an effect on the climate. The River St. Lawrence, which brings down the waters of six lakes, is the natural outlet and entrance of the country. This river is navigable for sea-going vessels as far as Montreal, a distance of 600 miles. The St. Lawrence and the connecting lakes above are estimated to contain 12,000 cubic miles of water.

To facilitate passing the rapids expensive canals have been constructed by the Government at a cost of $18,000,000, and by the aid of these canals vessels may descend from the head of Lake Superior to the ocean, several vessels having come from Chicago on Lake Michigan to Liverpool. The valley of the St. Lawrence is a region of immense forests comprising some sixty different varieties of trees.

The Government of Canada is to some extent similar to our own. The executive power is nominally vested in the Queen of England, and the Governor-General carries it out in her name. With the sole exception of the pardoning power the authority of the Governor is exercised under the advice of a Privy Council appointed and removable by himself, with the approval of the House of Commons. The command of the army and navy and militia is vested in the Queen. Ottawa is the seat of the Federal Government. The legislative power is exercised by the Senate and the House of Commons. The whole number of Senators is now 78, and members of the House of Commons 181, there being a readjustment at regular intervals.

increase of population. The length of railroads in operation in Canada is estimated to be nearly 4,000 miles, and telegraph lines 30,000 miles. In 1871 there were 430 newspapers and periodicals published in Canada, of which 42 are daily papers. A very large business is carried on between Canada and the United States, and the exports and imports about balance each other. It is believed that the Philadelphia Exhibition will tend to a better knowledge of the productions of each country and a large increase in the business relations. The mineral productions of the Dominion are coal, iron, gold, silver, copper, and gypsum. The gold mines of Nova Scotia have been worked to advantage for some years. The total amount of capital invested in manufactures is estimated at nearly $80,000,000. The Canadian department of the Philadelphia Exhibition will be very interesting. Not only will there be a full representation of all the products, but in addition stuffed specimens of the various animals, including the moose and caribou; also all of the birds and reptiles indigenous to the country. The cases intended for Canadian exhibits are all being prepared in Montreal, from whence they will be shipped by rail and delivered directly in the Centennial buildings without change of care.

To illustrate our international article on Canada we have secured, through the courtesy of Mr. Naiman, of Montreal, whose group pictures have a world-wide reputation. The Skating Carnival and the Snowshoe Club are specimens of his work in this line. The views of Montreal and Quebec have been selected with care from a large number of photographs recently taken.

His Excellency Sir Frederick Temple, Earl of Dufferin, Governor-General of Canada, and his worthy lady the Countess have already been most favorably made known to the readers of THE DAILY GRAPHIC through our correspondent in Canada. Their portraits given in this number are from photographs taken quite recently by Mr. Naiman, of Montreal. It is anticipated that the Earl and Lady Dufferin will visit the International Exhibition when they may feel assured of a warm welcome.

Mr. St. Just, President of the Commission, has won for himself great credit from his able management of the Department of Agriculture, and he has taken a warm interest in the position of Canada at the Exhibition, having already visited Philadelphia in connection therewith. Mr. Perrault, Treasurer and Secretary of the Commission, is a gentleman of large experience and marked executive ability; having been specially concerned with the agricultural progress of Canada for many years, and is a practical farmer with three hundred acres under cultivation. Mr. Perrault was present at the International Exhibitions of London and Paris, and brings to his present position the knowledge there obtained. Mr. McDonnell, Commissioner from Ontario, is a gentleman well known from his connection with the press, and his interest in the progress of education. Messrs. Wilmot and Perry have also been selected as Commissioners, from the fact that they are representative men gifted with a patriotic desire to see the Dominion of Canada occupying a foremost place in the approaching congress of nations.

PICTURES OF THE DAY.

On our first page this morning is a cartoon illustration of the traits which many prominent Democratic and Independent editors have been reduced in their search for outrages for which the Administration might justly be held responsible.

Pages 629 and 631 illustrate Canada and the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia. The illustrations are accompanied with copious explanatory text.

On page 654 the swimming furore in England is exhibited. Miss Agnes Beckwith, who recently swam the distance of five miles, from London Bridge to Greenwich, is the daughter of the well-known professional swimmer at Lambeth Baths and is but fourteen years old.

The distance was one hour seven minutes and forty seconds, so that, since the time the tide was running three miles an hour on the Thames, the girl really swam not quite two miles.

At the start and continued throughout the feat was a rapid side stroke. The costume she wore was a light rose pink lina trimmings with white braided lace. The object of the exploit was to decide a wager of $200 to $200 against her.

Miss Emily Parker made the same distance shortly afterwards, and then swam on to Blackwall, two miles further, accomplishing the seven miles in one hour and thirty seven and a half minutes. She is fifteen years old and considerably plumper than Miss Beckwith; her dress was a red lina trimmings with red ribbon.

On our last page is a portrait of Thomas W. Nicholls, the abounding teler of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Montreal, for whose apprehension and detention a reward of $1,000 is offered.

WALL STREET THIS MORNING. WALL STREET, September 24.—10:30 a. m. The stock and gold market opened as follows compared with the closing quotations of yesterday:

Table with columns: Bid, Offer, Bid, Offer, Bid, Offer. Lists various stocks and their prices.

NOT SO HARD HEARING.

A writer in the St. Louis Republican says: One afternoon Julia and I were in our accustomed spot—the corner of a sofa—with our arms kind of gracefully twined around each other, and now and then a kiss being exchanged—everything lovely and delicious as peaches and cream—when a step was heard in the hall.

THE FAIR SEX.

The Fascinating Conductor. A writer in Harper's relates the following: Conductor B— is always very polite to the ladies. All conductors are polite to ladies, particularly so provided they are young and handsome.

Not Pretty but Good. The following story is told of the Duchess de Berri: She was extremely fond of Dioppe, and passed a great deal of her time there in summer.

The Daughter of a Hundred Earls. A New York correspondent of the Chicago Times tells a romantic story of a young lady now residing in the metropolis.

A Pion for Actresses. London Society says: If the dramatic profession is one which it is disgraceful for any lady to adopt, reason compels us to say that no lady ought to enter a theatre at all.

pressure and sickness, convey the sense of cheerfulness and power. Egypt, despite the glorious climate, can scarcely be called a cheerful residence for a sensitive invalid.

Winter Bonnets. Lucy Hopner writes from Paris to the Philadelphia Bulletin: The winter bonnets are beginning to bloom, forth like autumn flowers in the milliners' shop windows.
