

American Jurist, published at Boston, vol. 7, for January and April 1832, (p. 13, January 1832) p. 253, there is a sketch of English Judges; from which (or rather from an extract of the Legal Observer, Aug 27, 1831) it would appear that the C. of C. P. was then composed as follows:

Sir W. C. Tindal, Ch. J.

Mr Justice Park, senior Puisné Judge

Mr Justice Gaselee, 2<sup>d</sup>

Mr Justice Rosanquet, 3<sup>d</sup>

Mr Justice Alderson, 4th " he is

" the youngest of the Judges in this

" Court. He is one of those exalted

" to the Bench under the Authority

" of a recent Act of Parliament

" for increasing the number of the

" Judges."
