Dear Sir, I write these few lines at the desire of Mr. Price who is much engaged in the Election for Contrary to our expectations and were we of the opening of the Pole we were fully impressed with the belief that there would be no opposition; the opposite party having declined to the last that there would be none.
But it is believed they have sometimes decided on Mr.
William Bow of Beauport who presents a handsome at the Hastings, today could have one informed that a sum of money amounting to several thousand dollars have been sent him by the Sherwood.

Jervis Mc Nab & Co. say we have not been however totally unprepared to meet any opposition: that they be made Mr Price may be detained here a day or two longer.

Excuse this note

We are extremely sorry you are not able to be present and regret the cause of your absence.
I am &c &c
J Amelius Young
